RESEARCH & ADVOCACY FUND (RAF)

Its mission, vision, strategy, call for proposals and to serve as a central resource for RAF. Details on how you can apply to the fund, guidelines and form for grant application are available on the website http://www.rafpakistan.org.

RAF aims to facilitate MNH related research and/or advocacy activities by providing small grants up to £50,000 and large grants up to £500,000 to public institutions, programs and departments; civil society organizations; academic institutions; private consultants and consulting firms; and national and international consortia, selected through a comprehensive evaluation and grant approval process. Public sector programs (MNCH, FP & PHC -LHW, EPI and others) are not eligible to receive RAF funding under the call for proposals.

Who is Eligibility?

- Registered with public authority under relevant acts in Pakistan (where applicable) for at least two years.
- Relevant experience/expertise in research and/or advocacy sufficient to carry out projects of the size and complexity indicated.
- Institutional capacity to implement, monitor, manage funds with appropriate independent auditing arrangements.
- Experience of working with socially excluded and marginalized communities.

Who can apply?

- Government agencies and departments
- Non-governmental organizations (NGOs)
- Research institutes
- Academic institutes
- Private companies
- Media houses
- Individual consultants
- National/international consortia